

Overview of the Daily Financial Report

Last Modified on 08/05/2024 9:57 am EDT

The Daily Financial Report is used to provide financial data for close of day reporting. The report includes claims created, claims submitted, insurance payments, and patient payments. It will also give a summary of the daily numbers and an advanced search option with the capability of claim drill-down allowing the billing team to quickly identify discrepancies, if applicable.
